Amendments to the Specification

Please delete the paragraph beginning at page 2, line 16.

~~An object of the present invention is to provide a camera having a distance measuring apparatus which prevents an out of focus picture by correcting an influence of fill light reflected at the surface of a lens barrel or at a highly reflective component disposed in the vicinity of the AF sensor when a certain picture taking scene requires fill light to be illuminated.~~